51.2.POLICY

2.1.The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (20 USC § 1092(f))("Clery Act") is a federal law, originally known as the Campus Security Act, that requires Universities and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses. The Higher Education Opportunity Act or HEOA (Public Law 110 315) reauthorized and expanded the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. HEOA amended the Clery Act and created additional safety and security related requirements for institutions.

2.2. Pursuant to the Clery Act as amended, Glenville State University ("University") is required to:

2.2.1. Collect, classify and count crimes that are reported and crime statistics.

2.2.2. Issue a timely warning for any Clery Act crime that represents an ongoing threat

2.7.1.3. Adopt certain institutional policies to address and prevent campus sexual violence, such as

2.7.3.1.1. Victims' option to, or not to, notify and seek of victims' confidentiality, but does not mandate that institutional policy address it.

2.7.3.2.7. Glenville State University's policies and complaint procedures are available in the Human Resources Office, in applicable student employee handbooks and online.
